For Immediate Release

Nazareth Community is proud to announce that John Tartaglia and Tarah Schwartz have been appointed as new members of its board. John brings his extensive business and financial savvy. Tarah brings a wealth of experience in journalism and media and more recently in digital marketing. We are thrilled to welcome them both and are grateful for their commitment to causes they believe in.

“Tarah and John will bring incalculable riches to the Board helping to drive the mission of Nazareth forward, and help to shape a future where those down on their luck can find a haven.”

Father John Walsh
CEO & Board Member, Nazareth Community

“Nazareth Community is run by people with such heart. They work to ensure the lives of those in need are made brighter and better. They strive to show the human side, which is the only side that really matters. I’m honored to be a part of this extraordinary team.”

Tarah Schwartz
Speaker, Host, Marketing and Communications Director at Plank

“Nazareth Community provides a feeling of home to people in need. The sense of community and the people involved speaks volumes about our hopes and expectations going forward. I am honored to join this remarkable team to help create a brighter and more stable environment.”

John Tartaglia
Managing Director - Diversified Industries / Corporate Finance Division
BMO Bank of Montreal

Montreal’s Nazareth Community remains dedicated to providing an environment that welcomes the forgotten, promotes social reintegration for the marginalized and encourages all to find their potential.
